

opera ON THE AVALON

Transforming our history into art
Commemorating and honouring a legacy of sacrifice

801 WOMEN

Name: William Masters

Regiment #: 1396

Rank: Private

Age: 23

Hair: Dark

Eyes: Grey

Height: 5'7"

Weight: 138 lbs

Son of George and Mary Masters, of Harbour
Buffett, Newfoundland.

Killed in action July 1st, 1916

Cemetery: Hawthorn Ridge Cemetery No.2;
Somme, France

Thank you for your kind donation to the 801 Women Campaign.

Your generous support will help commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Battle of the Somme by helping to recognize, remember, and celebrate the lives of the 801 Newfoundland and Labrador men who answered the call to battle on July 1, 1916.