

opera ON THE AVALON

Transforming our history into art
Commemorating and honouring a legacy of sacrifice

801 WOMEN

Name: Edward Louis Cole

Regiment #: 195

Rank: Private

Age: 18

Hair: Brown

Eyes: Blue

Son of Edward James and Fanny Jane Cole, of St. John's, Newfoundland.

Enlisted, Sept. 7, 1914; British Mediterranean Expeditionary Force, Aug. 20, 1915; Evacuated Suvla, sick, Oct. 26, 1915; Invalided to England, Nov. 24, 1915; British Expeditionary Force, March 28, 1916

Killed in action, Somme, June 28, 1916.

Cemetery: Beaumont-Hamel
(Newfoundland) Memorial; Somme, France

Thank you for your kind donation to the 801 Women Campaign.

Your generous support will help commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Battle of the Somme by helping to recognize, remember, and celebrate the lives of the 801 Newfoundland and Labrador men who answered the call to battle on July 1, 1916.